THE LAKE ENGLISH SERIES

Ward's Sentence and Theme

A first-year English book which stresses fundamentals.

Ward's Theme-Building

A second-year book with a plentiful supply of usable illustrative material.

Newcomer-Andrews' Twelve Centuries of English Poetry and Prose

Adequate material from all authors makes it possible to discard the old plan of studying about literature, substituting therefor a first-hand study of the literature itself.

Newcomer-Andrews-Hall's Three Centuries of American Poetry and Prose

The Lake English Classics

There are now nearly 100 volumes in the series.

Every teacher should have these on her desk—

Ward's "The Dislike of Jordan"

"Outline of First-Year English Composition"

Both mailed without charge

WARD'S "WHAT IS ENGLISH?" postpaid $1.25

THE RIVERSIDE LITERATURE SERIES

Offers the widest range of standard literature of any series for school use.
Presents a larger amount of recent copyrighted material than any other series for school use.

Contains over 300 volumes bound in cloth, or in Bristol board, a thin, flexible board of unusual strength made by a special formula for this series. Considering the amount of material contained in each volume, the Bristol board edition is the most inexpensive form in which classics may be obtained in any series for school use.

Century Co. English Books

A STUDY OF THE TYPES OF LITERATURE

By MABEL I. RICH

This is the first to appear of a series of high-school anthologies in English and American literature, which is being prepared under the editorship of James F. Hosic, and is for the upper years.

FACTS AND BACKGROUNDS OF LITERATURE

English and American

By REYNOLDS and GREEVER

A handbook, presenting in ready reference form important data, biographical and literary facts, and social and historical backgrounds bearing on literature as a whole and each important writer; and brought together in no other single volume.

THE CENTURY HANDBOOK OF WRITING

By GREEVER and JONES

This handbook treats essential matters of grammar, diction, spelling, and mechanics, and develops with thoroughness the principles of sentence-structure. It is built on a decimal plan of utmost simplicity, the material being reduced to one hundred articles. There is a wealth of exercises which, by a new device, can be assigned by a stroke of the pen.

MODERN SHORT STORIES

By FREDERICK HOUK LAW

Twenty-two modern short stories, especially adapted for high school classes in English and not found in similar volumes, have been included in this book. Dr. Law has prepared an admirable introduction on the short story and helpful and suggestive notes and questions on each story.

ARE YOU MODERNIZING YOUR COURSES FOR NEXT YEAR?

(Short Story)

AMERICANS ALL, edited by Benjamin A. Heydrick, High School of Commerce, New York City; author of Types of the Short Story.

14 modern American stories by distinguished authors, depicting various phases of our national life. $1.20

(Modern Poetry)

MODERN AMERICAN POETRY and MODERN BRITISH POETRY (2 books), compiled by Louis Untermeyer, author of The New Era in American Poetry, etc.

Each volume contains representative poems from about 75 authors, an illuminating introduction, and succinct biographical data. $1.00 each.

(Modern Drama)

ONE-ACT PLAYS BY MODERN AUTHORS, edited by Helen Louise Cohen, Washington Irving High School, New York City; author of The Ballade.

16 one-act plays by 16 noted authors, including MAETERLINCK, SYNGE, DUNSANY, TARKINGTON, LADY GREGORY, and GALSWORTHY. The Introduction discusses the Repertory Theatre idea, the Little Theatre, the new tendencies in stage design and lighting, construction of school theatres, reading and acting in schools, and gives fundamental instruction in dramatic composition. Ten illustrations. $1.60.

(Modern Prose)

MODERN AMERICAN PROSE SELECTIONS, collected by Byron J. Rees, late of Williams College.

20 papers of range and distinction on matters of present day interest, by American essayists, critics, educators, statesmen, and business men. $1.00.

MELVILLE'S TYPEE, edited by Sterling A. Leonard, University of Wisconsin. This fascinating yarn of the South Seas, the rival of Treasure Island, arranged for pupils of the ninth and tenth grades. 84 cents.

(History of English Literature)

ENGLISH LITERATURE, by John L. Haney, Central High School, Philadelphia.

A modern history of literature, not only in its down-to-dateness, including Barrie's recent success, "Dear Brutus," but in its treatment of literature as an interesting story. Letters from all parts of the country testify—"The best high school 'Literature' ever published"—"Our boys and girls are delighted with 'Haney's English Literature.'" 167 illustrations. $1.60.
